CD Sales and Tips

CD and Merchandise Sales

Sales of you or your groups CDs and merchandise is allowed. You may not bring in CDs or merchandise by other musicians to sell. Each CD or merchandise must be marked with the personalized price tags provided by Allied Arts. Allied Arts is not responsible for keeping track of inventory of CDs and merchandise. All CDs and merchandise must be brought in, with tags, no later than 5pm November 13th. If you are interested in selling CDs or merchandise, please mark the appropriate box on the Application Form and include listed prices.

Tips

Allied Arts will provide tip cans to be put out during performances. After each performance a representative from Allied Arts will empty the tip cans and give the money to the performers. No commission will be taken from tips.

Equipment Provided

Allied Arts will provide an upright piano as well as a sound system that includes monitor, 2 speakers, 2 microphones, cords and stands. If you require more, please bring your own. Note: There will NOT be a sound technician available.

Fee Requirements

Musicians are not required to have a membership or participation fee to perform at our Festivals. But, Allied Arts does appreciate donations or memberships in return for facilitating this community event.

Application Guidelines

Please fill out the form below as well as include a digital promotional image and website or CD with a sample of your work. You may email images or files to Katy Tolles, katy@alliedarts.org
