For 41 years, Allied Arts of Whatcom County has been an integral part in enriching and developing the arts scene in Whatcom County. Located in the heart of downtown Bellingham, the gallery shows new artists monthly. Each exhibit is a display of the widely diverse community of artists in our region.

The Allied Arts of Whatcom County Gallery shows works from over 150 local artists. Through our many galleries and programs we have been able to provide entertainment and education services to more than 50,000 people.

Allied Arts of Whatcom County is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization whose mission is to sustain and enrich our community through the arts.
